

LA LUZ

ABOUT CAMILA

Camila Hirane is an actress in film, theater and television. In film, Camila has participated in several internationally awarded Chilean films, such as "YOUNG & WILD" (2012), by Marialy Rivas and "YOU'LL NEVER BE ALONE" (2016), by Alex Andwanter. Currently, she has just finished shooting "LA PRÁCTICA", seventh feature film by award-winning Argentine director Martín Rejtman.

She debuted in the world of entertainment by the hand of prominent director Pablo Larraín in the series "FUGITIVES" (2011), where she played one of the female leads in seasons 1 and 2 of the series. Since then, she has worked in national soap operas and series for the most important television networks in her country, including "ESA NO SOY YO" (2016) where she gave life to two twin sisters and starred for 5 years in the successful soap opera "VERDADES OCULTAS" (2017-2022), which became the longest running teleseries in the history of Chile and with which she has received multiple national recognitions.

In theater, Camila has been part of productions such as "¿QUIÉN LE TEME A VIRGINIA WOOLF?" (2018) by Edward Albee, "TODOS ERAN MIS HIJOS" (2020) by Arthur Miller and "OLEANNA" (2019) by David Mamet. She has also just premiered Raymond Carver's "PRINCIPIANTES" (2022) at the Ictus Theater.
